

Attention Students active in Iredell County Crosby Scholars Community Partnership Program for the 2019 – 2020 year:

You are invited to participate in our first art contest, designed to showcase our student’s talents, and help raise funds for need-based Last Dollar Grants and Scholarships. Students are asked to submit a work of art that highlights one of the following themes:

“Education”, “The Future” or “Iredell County”

Interpretation of the theme is up to the student. All submissions must be suitable for all audiences. Crosby Scholars Iredell County reserves the right to reject entries that are gratuitously violent, sexually suggestive, vulgar, or otherwise explicitly offensive.

Winning entries will be exhibited and auctioned at the Iredell County Crosby Scholars Community Partnership Fundraising Casino Night, January 31, 2020. Proceeds will fund Crosby Scholars need-based Last Dollar Grants given to scholars in Iredell County.

Entry and Deadline

Include a completed entry form which must be adhered to the back of the original artwork.

Submit a digital image of your artwork by December 13, 2019 to jjamison@crosbyscholarsiredell.org
All finalist must be willing to bring original pieces of art to the Crosby Office by Dec 30, 2019. Crosby Scholars Iredell County, 124 Fourth Crescent Place, Statesville, NC 28625
